Musical Art Club Entertains in Fordyce Palm Room.

The artistic palm room of the magnificent Fordyce bath house furnished an exquisite setting for the brilliant musical program presented by the Musical Art Club last evening before an audience that taxed the seating capacity of the spacious hall. Even standing room was at a premium.

The audience was representative of the leading circles of society, as represented by the musical, social, fashionable and business elements of both resident and visiting society.

The superb program offered rarely beautiful selections from the choicest gems of the composer, Liszt, with a few numbers from other masters. The performers included members of the Arlington, Majestic and Eastman orchestras, and Miss Allie Merle Conger, instructor of piano at Central College, in addition to the best talent of the Musical Art Club.

Manager Jacques F. Manier and his wife extended every hospitality possible on behalf of the Fordyce bath and the program committee, as the club hostesses of the occasion, extended every courtesy possible on behalf of the Musical Art Club.

Manager Manier honored the occasion by appearing in elegant evening dress, as did all of the gentlemen on the program.

The lady performers, almost without exception, appeared in delectable evening gowns. While all of the costumes were worthy of mention, space limits us to mention only those worn by the presiding officer and by the club hostesses.

Mrs. Jacques F. Manier, president of the club, presided with her usual gracious dignity. She wore a striking evening gown of flame colored charmeuse with touches of gold. Fur trimmings in a contrasting shade.

Mrs. Irma C. Hogue was beautifully gowned in a lovely white charmeuse with gold lace trimmings made decollete and en traine. Her jewels were diamonds. She was especially handsome on this occasion.

Mrs. B. Frank Bayley's dainty blonde beauty was shown to splendid advantage in a perfectly beautiful turquoise blue broadened satin evening gown made colonial style. The trimmings were rich cream lace and pearl ornaments, and a picture-quite evening cap of gold lace made an artistic finish to this becoming toilette.

Mrs. Claude Marsh, in a handsome gown of fashionable green silk and chiffon with touches of cream lace, velvet, and monkey fur trimmings. Her ornaments were diamonds.

Mrs. Will F. Lake was attractive in a pretty white crepe with touches of Nile green silk and dainty hand-embroidery.

Two artists of special merit that were heard on this program were Prof. Franz Dietrich and Miss Allie Merle Conger. Prof. Dietrich for a period of eighteen years was instructor and director of the Royal Academy at Melbourne, Australia, and is a violinist par excellence. Miss Conger, a pupil of the great Leblond, is at present instructor of piano at Central College, Conway, and those who were fortunate enough to hear her last evening will remember her as one of the best pianists that has ever visited our city.

Prof. Dietrich received an ovation last evening following his exquisite violin solo with the gifted Mr. Kirkham at the piano. He gave an encore an equally difficult number which he rendered in a masterly style.

Miss Allie Merle Conger won her way to the heart of every music lover by the splendid execution of her number. Her touch was par excellence and the Knabe grand piano responded in a way that proved its rich, mellow tone qualities. She responded to hearty applause with a lovely encore.

A special feature of the program was the "Transcription of Schubert's Serenade," by Prof. Franz Dietrich, violin; Mr. Hans Deindl, cello; and Mr. W. T. Kirkham, piano. Each of these gentlemen showed a mastery of knowledge of their respective instruments and the number received a storm of applause which only abated when they responded with an encore, "Humoreske," which was rendered in a charming manner.

Mr. Hans Deindl delighted the audience with his lovely cello solos, "Berceuse de Jocelyn" and "Rosary," sharing the honors of the success with Mr. W. T. Kirkham, who, as pianist, acquitted himself in his usual excellent style. Both of these gentlemen are gifted musicians who always delight their appreciative audiences.

Mrs. Irma C. Hogue played in her usual fine style, "Hark the Lark," and was given applause both before and following her number.

To Mrs. Hogue is due much credit in arranging this splendid program. A number which received much favorable comment and was really one of the features of the evening was the violin solo by Mrs. Jacques F. Manier with splendid orchestral accompaniment. Mrs. Manier's playing possessed big melodious tone, full timbre and quality. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cain and others accompanied her in excellent style.

Miss Adele Johnson is a popular local musician and her appearance was greeted with applause which was repeated following her rendition of Wienawski's "Mazurka" as a violin solo with Mrs. I. C. Hogue at the piano. This number received much praise.

The piano duet by Mrs. Helen Han-mond and Miss Eugenia Swearingen was a pretty opening number.

Miss Juanita Gilliam as contralto, Mrs. A. E. Ehmman as soprano and Mrs. Louise Horner, contralto, shared the vocal honors of the evening, receiving much applause and appreciation.

Mrs. Claude Marsh's piano solo, "Rondo Brillante," was exceptionally well rendered and greatly applauded.

Owing to the severe illness of her father, Mrs. Bayley did not take part, and therefore the audience was deprived of one of the best piano solos on the program.

The concert of last evening was a splendid success in every way and the Musical Art Club may well feel proud of their achievement.

Fortnightly Club Meeting.

The Fortnightly Club met Wednesday in the palm room of the Fordyce bath house. The subject for the afternoon was "Civics," and Mrs. Nita Barry Mallory was leader. The program included:

Paper—"Municipal House Cleaning," Miss Ida McCarley.

Talk—"Influence of Environment," Mrs. J. E. Harper.

Paper—"What the Boy Scout Movement Means to the Boy, the Home, and the Town," Mrs. J. W. McDonald.

Mrs. W. E. Massey and Mrs. Mallory made short talks on civics, and Mrs. Harper distributed literature from the A. F. W. C. chairman of civics and read an article on the subject of civics.

This was the first meeting that the club has held in the Fordyce bath house and a vote of thanks was tendered the management for the courtesy and hospitality. Other women's clubs have been invited to hold their meetings in the palm room.

Auction Bridge Party, Mrs. Little, Hostess.

One of the graceful social courtesies of yesterday was that extended by Mrs. Wm. J. Little to her circle of friends who indulged in auction bridge.

Mrs. Little received her guests with that gracious cordiality that distinguishes her as a hostess. Becomingly gowned in a handsome black costume she appeared very elegant.

Mrs. M. Mellard Stapleton presided over the punch bowl placed on a handsomely decorated table in the reception hall. Pink sweet peas lent a charming and ornamental table decoration banded about the punch bowl.

Mrs. Stapleton appeared quite distinguished in a handsome black afternoon gown.

The card tables were placed in the drawing room and dining room which were decorated with a profusion of exquisite Killarney roses and pink carnations which were artistically arranged in ornamental vases.

There was a fashionable assemblage of stylishly gowned ladies who appeared quite charming in the lovely varicolored toilettes so popular this spring.

Those assisting Mrs. Little in dispensing hospitality were: Mrs. Walter Little, Mrs. Leland Leatherman and Mrs. Stapleton.

Following the games, an elaborate three course luncheon of choice delicacies was faultlessly served.

The highest score was made by Miss Georgia Latta, who was presented with a handsome piece of linen.

2 Drops of "GETS-IT," Out Comes the Corn

It's the World's Wonder; Never Fails.

You'll make go-go eyes at your feet, after you use "GETS-IT," and you'll find the places where those blakely corns used to be, just as smooth as your cheek. There's no corn or callus among the millions of feet in the world that "GETS-IT" will not remove—there's no escape. "GETS-IT" is the new way, the simple, common-sense, sure way. It does away with greasy ointments, salves, pads, cotton rings, harnesses, knives, scissors, razors, files, and the limping and the painful pigeon-toe walk of so many corn-pestered people. All you do is put 2 drops of "GETS-IT" on the corn shrivels up—and good-bye. Nothing else in the world like "GETS-IT." Millions are using it. There's no pain, no trouble, no changing shoes because of corns.

"How Wide Is a 'GETS-IT' Smile? Well, a Good Deal Over 2 Feet!"

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Hot Springs and recommended as the world's best corn cure by R. G. Morris Drug Company and Sorrells Drug Company.

Mrs. F. A. Winter, who won second honor, and Mrs. Ben Bryan, who won third, were each presented with handsome art baskets. The consolation fell to Mrs. Stapleton, who was presented with an ornamental basket.

Those invited to share the pleasures of the occasion were: Mesdames Estill Holland, S. E. Dillon, F. A. Winter, Alf Whittington, P. T. Vaughan, E. G. Huber, Ben Bryan of New York, Minnie M. Stapleton, F. A. Stearns, W. T. Wootton, G. Smith of Virginia, W. V. Laws, J. T. Jackson, J. M. Proctor, Chas. Duke, Leland Leatherman, W. H. Deaderick, F. Oimsted, Jack Sprague, J. A. Stallcup, F. C. Stearns, Walter Dako, V. Wilson of Denver, Ernest F. Latta, B. Rush Norvell of Beaumont, Texas, J. D. Pife, Hiram Whittington; Misses Bettie Ryan and Georgia Latta.

Mrs. W. K. Pamplin, Hostess.

The Embroidery Club was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. K. Pamplin.

The charming hostess was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by Mrs. S. A. Nix. Mrs. Nix displayed her ability by an original contest. The first prize was won by Mrs. Fred Fowler, the "booby" by Mrs. Shouse.

The dainty luncheon served in two courses was delightful.

The members of the club present were: Mrs. A. C. Files, Mrs. Guinn, Mrs. J. F. Dennis, Mrs. Robert Shouse, Mrs. Lockett, Mrs. Fred Fowler, Mrs. S. A. Nix, Mrs. Marshall House and Misses Nora Guin, Zelma Nichols, Madge Watson, Marguerite Guin, Osa Mae Dennis and Blanch Dennis. The visitors included Mrs. Wurtz and Mrs. Hunter Thompson.

The club will meet with Miss Marguerite Guin March 24.

Misses Martin and Mrs. Stapleton to Entertain.

"Wicklow," the beautiful home of Hon. W. H. Martin, which is one of the handsomest homes on Ouachita avenue, the fashionable residence thoroughfare of the city, will be the scene of a lovely hospitality Wednesday, March 17, when the Misses Martin and Mrs. Minnie Mellard Stapleton will be at home to invited guests. The receiving hours will be from 4 to 6 p.m.

Mrs. Stallcup to Entertain.

Mrs. M. H. Stallcup of St. Louis will entertain with a luncheon at the Arlington hotel today. Mrs. Stallcup has made many friends on her frequent visits to the city.

Majestic Dance Friday Evening.

The usual Friday evening dance will take place at the Majestic hotel. These affairs are informal and are arranged for the guests of the hotel. Music by the Majestic orchestra. Dancing at 9 o'clock. Manager H. A. Jones extends his usual cordial invitation to the local and visiting dancing set to attend.

John A. Riggs returned from Little Rock Wednesday.

Captain and Mrs. J. H. Avery returned yesterday from Little Rock.

Mrs. C. C. Sparks is visiting her daughter in Watertown, Wis.

Mrs. Ed Weber has returned to Little Rock after a visit to Mrs. Loyd Thompson.

Mr. W. T. Pyne continues very ill at his home but is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wadley returned to their home in Texarkana Wednesday after attending the funeral of the latter's father, W. A. Greer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Thompson and Mrs. L. J. Herzog of Little Rock are at the Hotel Eastman for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Jung of Milwaukee, Wis., are guests at the Arlington for the month of March. Mr. Jung is president of the Jung Brewing Co.

Mrs. Valdo Frank Wilson and little son, Valdo Jr., of Denver are the guests of Mrs. Wilson's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Dake.

Mrs. Walter Marshall Dake Jr. of the Rainbow mine, in Wyoming, has arrived to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dake.

Miss Helen Peters, who is a student in St. Mary's Convent in Little Rock, is at home for a few days visit to her mother, Mrs. Charles Davis.

H. A. Boomer, general manager of the Lake Erie and Western railroad, and a party of Indianapolis business men, reached Hot Springs yesterday.

DRUG VICTIMS TAKE CURE.

Dr. Pace's Sanitarium and Hospital in Hot Springs, Ark., is filled to the utmost capacity.

Hot Springs, March 9.—Dr. Pace's Hospital and Sanitarium, a private institution where treatment is given to drug victims, rapidly is being filled to capacity as a result of the law which cut off the drug supply to habitual users. Dr. Pace states he has treated thirty successfully in the last two weeks.

An annex for patients of moderate means, is prepared for this special work, for those who can only pay the actual expense of the treatment, payable on entrance; no extras.

The course is brief as to be of distinct advantage to out-of-town physicians who wish to come here with their patients and follow the treatment, no part of which is secret.
